

*We* are many. We* are not all the same. We* is also an invitation. An invitation to get together with like-minded people and start with a little step against the right today. Whatever is within your possibilities - because many small steps make a difference.*

Online-Documents→

50 Inspirations for Actions

Disclaimer: This list is a straight translation from our “50 ideas to get active”. It’s primary purpose is to increase the accessibility of our resources. Some parts of the list might no be useful (e.g. where it is based on other websites in German). Also, we are aware that some inspirations are not recommended depending on your legal status. Please do not see the list as advices or suggestions, just as a translation of a german version. See also www.wir-gegen-rechts.at/en/wastun.

1. Talk to five neighbors about their concerns (and maybe also about how they vote)
2. Distribute posters and stickers “We* against the right” & make it better known
3. Write letters to newspapers (30 minutes can bring a lot)
4. Redesign election posters
5. Support critical media, such as Tagebuch, An.schläge, Südwind Magazin, Frauensolidarität, andererseits, Falter, unter Palmen, ...
6. Donations or memberships for emancipatory, critical organizations – or showing solidarity
7. Leave messages in public spaces (Edding is enough)
8. Use material from www.gscheidwählen.at and share it
9. Organize a neighborhood picnic to meet people (and distribute this 50 inspirations)
10. Organize a workshop/discussion/presentation on the topic e.g. with experts from Dokumentationsarchiv des Österreichischen Widerstands
11. Attend or organize an argumentation training against dull slogans:
<https://politischebildung.at/bildungsangebote>
12. Showing solidarity with those affected: Many people find it difficult to stand up to racist, anti-Semitic, sexist, classist, and ableist statements. What helps is to approach those affected, ask them how they are doing, and whether there is anything you can do for them.
13. Book a workshop from www.netzwerk-demokratie-courage.at or www.zara.or.at or support their work.
14. Talk to teachers (of your children or those you know) and ask them to address fascism / authoritarianism / racism / ... in school
15. Print and distribute your own flyers/posters/stickers
16. Support the work of <https://www.aufstehn.at>, get active there, sign petitions
17. Social media postings e.g. #reclaimticktock or <https://fridaysforfuture.at/zaehneputzen>
18. Talk to relatives and encourage them to vote (if they wouldn't) or not to vote (if the lean towards FPÖ, ÖVP)
19. An Organisationen schreiben, in denen du Mitglied bist: Gewerkschaft, Kirche, Verkehrsclub, Sportclub, ... und sie bitten, Stellung zu beziehen
20. Send letters/emails to your district council/state governor and express your concern about polarization and extremism
21. Attend civil society networking events, present your own initiative there or get involved.
Examples: <https://civilaction.net/events> or www.attac.at

22. Write to your favorite podcast or radio station so that they take a stand / address the shift to the right
23. Report right-wing extremist statements on the internet, e.g. at #GegenHassimNetz, HateAid or Dokustelle
24. In some cities there are groups/events such as the “Open Antifa Meeting”
25. Share the appeal for donations: <https://gofund.me/16bca55d> so that we can continue our work and offer trainings and print more posters
26. Use the local neighborhood center or other publicly available spaces (youth centers, senior living facilities) for internal meetings and public events.
27. Invite contemporary witnesses of the Nazi era for storytelling cafés, lectures, workshops
28. Develop neighborhood-based solidarity protection of housing for refugees and migrants together with the residents.
29. Networking with queer people in your (living) environment. Queer people are often ambushed and attacked when they go out. Go out together and look out for each other (queer-straight connections)
30. Organize argumentation training or self-defense for women wearing headscarves, visibly disabled people or BIPoCs
31. If you like: join a left-wing party
32. Plan a campaign and actions against social cuts
33. Copy this list, add to it and distribute it – e.g. in your house, in the park, in the office...
34. Support and share research/fake checking platforms like Korrektiv or Mimikama
35. Research on FPÖ officials in your region. For MPs: www.meineabgeordneten.at but also about district officials, state parliament members, etc. there may be interesting facts (closeness to companies, voting behavior, ...)
36. Support the work of www.mehr-demokratie.at and get involved there
37. A petition can be submitted to the Austrian Parliament with 500 signatures or more
38. Attend action trainings, further trainings, workshops, plan small actions
39. Invent and spread (counter-)narratives. Tips:
<https://commonslibrary.org/the-power-of-story-the-story-of-self-us-and-now>
40. Create a list of corruption cases from the FPÖ/ÖVP and hang it up/distribute it everywhere. Inspiration is here.
41. Interventions at events
42. plan a campaign, see: trainings.350.org/resource/how-campaigns-are-really-created-4
43. Create your own website for your group with your own events, workshops and activities, tips for participation, etc. This is easy to do with e.g. WIX, Jimdo, Webflow, WordPress - or just text with a pad: <https://pads.c3w.at>
44. Write to all schools in your area that the topics of authoritarianism, fascism, racism must be addressed and that workshops (DÖW, ZARA, ...) exist for this purpose
45. Use “we against the right” stickers to focus on beautifying places in your area – whether bus stops, entrance areas, intersections – preferably concentrated rather than distributed inconspicuously
46. Connecting solidarity/left/relevant groups & building bridges, from alternative ecos, single parent self-help groups, contemporary witnesses, migrant groups, people with disabilities, neighborhood assistance groups, anti-racism activists, anti-capitalists, human rights groups, peace activists, queers to community gardens and precariously employed people. Organise meetings, making contacts, finding common ground!

47. Inform yourself and others (!) about your rights, e.g. against the police:
www.wienextra.at/jugendinfo/infos-von-a-z/polizeikontrolle-deine-rechte-pflichten Show solidarity and document unlawful and excessive police checks. Support and make the <https://antirepressionsbuero.at> better known to all.
48. Network with other initiatives in other countries that support, for example, marginalized groups: getting to know each other, support, joint projects, etc.
49. Share the “What to do” linklist everywhere in networks: https://linktr.ee/wastun\_wahl24
50. Write a manifesto/position paper and submit it to (large) organizations, NGOs, platforms for signature. Then publish it together/build pressure.

Most important: take care of each other! Respect your limits and capacities.

Find important events and trainings at www.wir-gegen-rechts.at/events. (Even for events with german info, we might be able to organize whisper translation. Get in contact!)